

Giving Back to the Community

Our people make a difference in their communities, using their enthusiasm, goodwill and generosity to support a variety of charitable causes.

Below are just a few of the many ways in which our people put Transcom's five key values – Honesty, Passion, Excellence, Fun and Innovation – into practice in 2007:

Canada

Canadian staff made tremendous efforts in 2007, taking part in variety of charity initiatives. Country-wide dress-down Fridays lead to the collection of more than 130,000 CAD (approximately 87,000 EUR), which was donated throughout the year to a number of organisations selected by staff.

France

More than 500 Transcom agents voluntarily handled telephone donations for a national television appeal, processing more than 350,000 EUR in aid on behalf of the ELA (European Association against Leukodystrophies).

Spain

In August 2007, the Ica Region of Peru was hit by a devastating 8.0 magnitude earthquake, which destroyed more than 58,000 homes. Team members in Madrid and León quickly joined forces with charity organisation Mano a Mano to collect medical supplies, food and clothing, which were sent directly to help those most in need.

Sweden

Employees once again decided to forego their traditional Christmas gift from Transcom in favour of donating the designated budget to charity. SOS Children's Villages – an organisation dedicated to the support and protection of orphaned or abandoned children across the globe – was the main beneficiary, receiving an incredible 13,800 EUR.

UK

Team-mates at our St. Albans office collected more than 3,500 EUR through various fundraising activities in 2007. Proceeds were donated to a number of organizations, including the Multiple Sclerosis Society and Breast Cancer Research.
